

Christy Carico – Artist Statement

With the need to create, Christy dabbles in multiple art forms. Her acrylic works invoke daydreams amongst landscapes. While her Waste Fashions are tied to raising awareness to important causes. “Creating something outside of myself is a curious process of expelling emotions, reflecting, and simply trying to exist in this wild world.”